Moderately

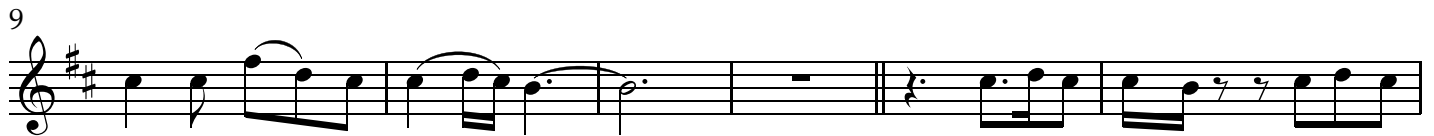

Sung an octave lower than written

May the State trem-ble, the heav-ens, the streets; May they be a - fraid, ICE and po lice;— They have spread ha-tred fear and ter-ror, Sto-len our peace, but we grow strong to- geth - er._____ Ev-er-y min-ute of ev-'ry week They kid-nap our loved ones off of the street; In-vade our homes, take a-way friends; We'll say their names,_____ our cit-ies de - fend._____

For all of you march-ing in Min - ne - so - ta, For all of us with you the whole world o - ver, For all of the tor-tured, all of the child-ren, All of the peo-ple caged in their pris-ons. We will have jus-tice, we sing with-out fear; We cry for each one of us who's dis - ap - peared; Shout it out strong, we want us a - live!_ Tear it a - sun - der. A - bo - lish ICE!_____

35

38

45

 And we know that rac - is - m is no - thing new, And ICE are the thugs _ of the white wealth - y few; We will not be si - lent. It's you who will fall. When you hurt

48
