

The Hungry Giant (Greenland Defense Front)

Oh ancient land of ice and stone
Kilaallit forever our home
A hungry giant wants to take our shore
To drink the oil and eat the ore
Now here the Gilaat echo through the deep
And wake every soul a from their sleep
Greenland defense front stay tall
Orange hand reaches but his fingers freeze and fall ah!

Chorus: Oh let the drums mark this day no more strangers lead the way
The bear, the hunter, the spirits rise
To pluck the greed from the stranger's eyes.
We call the Tupilaq to hunt the ghost
Tear the foul spirit from our sacred coast
Hum bada hum bada hum bada Hum bada 3x

Our hunters move without a sound
Silent ghosts born on the frozen ground
The great bear rises from the drifting snow
The northern guardian who fears no foe
Walrus stand where the green waves break
A force of nature no tide can shake.
Winds will come and winds will go
We've dealt with worse before Chorus
